MCM EVENT SERIES 2010

Arlington Couple Among First Finishers at Crossroads 17.75K

New Marine Corps Marathon Event Attracts 1,268 to Prince William County

QUANTICO, VA (June 12, 2010) –David Burnham, 26, of Arlington, VA, topped all 1,262 finishers in the Crossroads 17.75K by reaching the National Museum of the Marine Corps finish line in 1:03:37. After breaking the finish tape, the newly married Burnham waited at the finish for his wife, Sarah, 25, who placed third among the women finishing at 1:21:38.

The Crossroads 17.75K distance of 11.03 miles commemorated the year the Marine Corps was founded and showcased scenic Prince William Forest Park.

Erin Moore, 35, of Springfield, VA, was the top female finisher at 1:15:56. Judy Doldorf, 37, of Woodbridge, VA finished second for women overall at 1:21:05.

Jeff Poindexter, 20, of Stafford, VA was the second male to finish at 1:05:56. William Mikolajczak, 24, of Triangle, VA finished third at 1:07:08.

The male and female masters category was won by James Migletz, 40, with a finish time of 1:11:43 and Heidi Baise, 45, of King George, VA, with a 1:23:47 finish.
